The ladies are not very bright and even logical. They are the worst as witnesses.

Every so often they don't even know what they are talking about.
Only if they spent some efforts to think like how they decorate themselves ...

All they have going on in their little skull to dream and dreaming impossible situations.

Even after they age... they remain almost the same.

If I have to expect women to have critical and logical thinking, I'd rather wait and see those french bastards going belly up.

French girls are not bad, sir.

And a woman writes a detective story ? No way !

Girls are out of my interest.

Ohh !

Though that's how they become girls in the end,

I didn't notice

I am not expecting much from this Miss Elizabeth, either.

Logic begins
by determining which is truth
and which is false.

Would a woman
have such an ability to remain
level headed?

I am going there only because she claimed to have seen something.

Just enjoy
Jane Austen's
works and be done with it!

I guess none of witnesses were useful for you.

I am sure noble ladies
told you mind
boggling love stories.

And servants / maids would have kept their mouth
shut for their own sake.

You find it suspicious but don't have any evidence.

I am sure that you were debating whether it was wise to come here while on your way here.

Mrs Elizabeth...

Are you implying that...

You found evidence that it was indeed homicide?

Evidence was free to grab on the floor!

It was so easy.

What is with
this woman?

She has better
know something.

Not only did she
mess up the scene,
she even left her
name card ...

If not, I will make sure she will pay for my wasted time !

What's making
her so confident?

I want to be apologized
before I tell you anything about the case.

Writing a detective
novel is vastly different from actual work of being a detective !

You lost me.

H -

If I wasn't a lady,

Would you have still told me to tell you truth only?

You seem to think that women are too emotional and they cannot think logically.

Obviously, some are.
However, not all.

Do you know anything about Countess Lovelace?

Well... all I know is that she was Lord Byron's daughter.

How about
Charles Babbage?

Babbage ?
He tried to make some engines ...

Basically, a scammer ?

NO !

That's a very mean
way to judge him.
Granted his Analytical Engine
wasn't complete.

He was the first man
to have broken
Vigenère cipher !

He was such a genius ...

How can you just
call him a "scammer"
?!

Apologize
to him !

And ...

Someone created algorithm
for the engine that could only be commanded by logic.

And that was Ada
Lovelace.

Of course,
logical gentleman
knew nothing about that.

You've been to the
second Opium War,
haven't you?

You look a lot
younger than your appearance lets on.

Am I wrong?

You see, flintlock guns
were widely used before American civil war.

It has been replaced
by Persia's cap and every gun uses it
now.

Welcome back, Edwin.

Yes.

Edwin?
Is he your brother?

No, he is a butler.

Ah?

But he was being addressed very highly.

I am back.

Laundry basket? What for?

It's what you wanted, the proof.

He is too young to be a butler...

Furthermore, he has an air of a gentleman.

Etiquettes can be taught.

But he looks more like ... a noble.

His accent and tone are very clear and in form.

He may be just a butler but ...

I think he may be gentle at least ...

Where were you at?

Ah... the percussion cap...

What does that have to do with modern?

Oh, man...
You are really slow.

When would have got this far earlier?

Flintlock works
by creating a small explosion.

And its explosion
pushes a bullet
forward.

As a bullet
leaves its barrel,
so will the explosion.

And matters
from the ignition
can be carried on
for as 10 feet.

In other words, if he really did commit suicide, he would have burnt wounds as well.

W, wait !

But he had no such wounds.
In fact, it was too clean.

Are you implying that ...
As if it wasn't enough that, you were at the scene -

You even handled
the body ?!

When I was told that the body had been disturbed by her, I was skeptical ...

She does do that, I guarantee.

Lady detective

But how could have she known?
She is still very young.

Yet she was able to identify a case where even veterans weren't unable to.

In everything you've said true?

That would be your job to confirm.

As you said, I am
just a lady.

This is probably as much as I can do in my position.

Do you know
who is responsible for this site ??

Why do I need
to tell you ??

Everyone has their places. A driver drives. A garden
looks after garden.

Lady detective

You have enough books already. Why are you asking a detective to buy you more?

I need a raise also then since I've done job outside of my field.

A lady should also help those in need.

What?
You know,
I've spent a lot of efforts
on this!

Edwin?
You are already rich!

Cops being what has nothing to do with me !

Lady, if you keep on insisting ...

I am going to call your manager at the publishing company.

I am going to inform him
that you have so much free time that you are visiting murder scenes.

That's ... very unkind of you, Eduin ...

Right back at you.

DON'T GET ME DOWN
TO MY KNEES

Lady detective

The documents have also been verified by a lawyer.

It should come in handy for you.

Ah, thank you.

These two don't look like one's employee and one's employer.

And he looks familiar somehow...
Where did I see him before?

O_HF-1

Now ...

Shall we go and
track the truth ?
